

My Mind My Power® Double Entry Journal

Directions: To encourage you to think while you read, completing the following activities for each chapter of your book: 1. Read, Think, React, 2. Write your reactions in the double entry journal.

Book: _____

1. How satisfied were you with your reading, thinking, and reactions today?

1	2	3	4	5
Not Very Satisfied	Not Satisfied	Not Sure	Satisfied	Very Satisfied

3. Explain something that made you think deeply while you read today (one indication of thinking deeply is having to read the paragraph, page, or section again), examples include:

- | | | |
|---|--|---|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A Quote • Key Event or Turning Point • Critical Fact • A Specific Passage • Descriptiveness/Details | | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Problem or Conflict • Main Idea • Character’s Development • Literary Elements • Word Choice |
|---|--|---|

Chapter: _____

2. List a question that was inspired by what you read today:

4. Write your thoughts (reaction, reasons, explanation, significance, connection, personal impact, emotional affect, etc) about why you chose what you did for #3.

Book: _____

1. How satisfied were you with your reading, thinking, and reactions today?

1	2	3	4	5
Not Very Satisfied	Not Satisfied	Not Sure	Satisfied	Very Satisfied

3. Explain something that made you think deeply while you read today (one indication of thinking deeply is having to read the paragraph, page, or section again), examples include:

- | | | |
|---|--|---|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A Quote • Key Event or Turning Point • Critical Fact • A Specific Passage • Descriptiveness/Details | | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Problem or Conflict • Main Idea • Character’s Development • Literary Elements • Word Choice |
|---|--|---|

Chapter: _____

2. List a question that was inspired by what you read today:

4. Write your thoughts (reaction, reasons, explanation, significance, connection, personal impact, emotional affect, etc) about why you chose what you did for #3.
